HIGH LEVEL MEETING FOR CLIMATE ACTION AND SYSTEMIC TRANSFORMATION

EIT CLIMATE-KIC

COP25 MADRID 2019

"Towards the Systemic Transformation"

UN FCCC
Friday 6 December
16:00h -18:00h

(30´) Part I – Toward Systems Transformation for Climate Action

Transformation in Time. Kirsten Dunlop, CEO EIT Climate-KIC (10´)

Rethinking Innovation. Mariana Mazzucato, Founding Director of the UCL Institute for Innovation & Public Purpose (tbc) (20´) (TBC)

(90´) Part II – Discussion Panel

Chair: Kirsten Dunlop, CEO EIT Climate-KIC

Brief Introduction on Deep Demonstrations. Tom Mitchell, Chief Strategy Officer EIT Climate-KIC

Orchestration of Deep Demos 3D-spaces for System Innovation. Discussion panel (70´)

Invited Discussants

- Antonio Torregrosa, Director Fundacion Valenciaport (tbc) (TBC)
- Esperanza Caro, General Director of Sustainable Development, Sevilla City Council.
- Carlos Mataix, Director UPM's Centre for Innovation in Technology for Human Development (itdUPM), Universidad Politécnica de Madrid (UPM) (TBC)
- Santiago Saura, Councillor of International Relations, Madrid City Council (TBC)
- Gorka Espiau, Senior Fellow "Agirre Lehendakaria Center for Social and Political Studies", University of the Basque Country and Columbia University (TBC)
- Tom Mitchell, Chief Strategy Officer EIT Climate-KIC

High level participants strategically represent regions/ countries at the institutional level, industry and business and financial entities. This representation will unequivocally reflect the systemic approach of the Deep Demos and EIT Climate-KIC as a lever at institutional and operational level.
The facilitator will present 2 specific questions to each speaker prepared in advance to promote valuable discussion around systems innovation as lever for urgent systems change, opportunities and challenges.
Questions – to be prepared

Next steps and Closure, by Kirsten Dunlop